About Us

The Families of Veterans' Guild (the Guild) is proudly owned and operated by Australian War Widows NSW Ltd. The Guild is Australia's only organisation to unite all defence and veteran families under one banner. Supporting families from the first day of service and beyond the life of the veteran.

The Guild's priority is the emotional and social wellbeing of families of Australian defence members or veterans, regardless of whether their veteran is currently serving or has previously served.

The Guild's vision is to see all families of Australian veterans thriving, resilient, acknowledged and respected. Because healthy, resilient families are crucial for a strong and robust Australian defence force.

Our staff are part of a small, dynamic, authentic and high performing team. We have a culture of kindness, fairness, honesty and integrity. We value humility, integrity and accountability.

We are looking for a person that is comfortable working in such an environment and value cultural fit over technical capability. We are looking for a high performer with the ability to work well independently and as part of a small team.

Role Overview

As the Operations Officer, you will deliver critical processes, structures and support the operations of the organisation.

You will be responsible for:

- the implementation of feedback processes and reporting,
- organisation activity monitoring and reporting,
- applying for funding to support the organisations operations; and
- policy and process development and updating.

You will also assist in implementation of the organisation's new funding model throughout 2025-2026.

Key Responsibilities and Tasks

- Organisational policy and process research, development, modernisation and reporting.
- Develop and implement a new approach to volunteer management, recruitment and retention.
- Assist with digitisation and workflow optimisation of the organisation's operations.
- Implement feedback management policy and process and assist in routine reporting.
- Apply for grants and funding.
- Any other reasonable duties as directed.

About you

We are looking for a high performer with the ability to work well independently and as part of a small team.

Our ideal candidate will have the following skills, experiences and attributes:

- Experience in a similar role and delivery of like functions to a high standard.
- Confident communication and interpersonal skills, including a demonstrated ability to engage and build rapport with a variety of audiences.
- Strong organisational and time management skills with the ability to prioritise and manage competing priorities.
- Demonstrated ability to work autonomously with broad direction and as part of a small and dynamic team.
- Have an adaptable, resilient, positive, proactive attitude and approach.
- Demonstrated strong problem-solving skills and good exercise of professional judgement.
- High attention to detail and accuracy in work undertaken.
- Ability to manage competing priorities and timelines.
